Below is my review of the book "The Mystic Christ" by Ethan Walker III. As a mystic by nature who converted to Christianity, I found it extremely difficult to reconcile the established beliefs of my chosen faith with personal experience. The more deeply entrenched I became in the church the more aware I became that something was missing, something wasn't right.

The Mystic Christ makes more sense to me than any of them. When I first read it in 2004, it was an awakening for me. Ethan's very well researched and well thought-out presentation of the gospel of love is the one I recommend to friends and relatives who are dealing with grief or confusion in their lives.
